Alton Decr 18th 1826

To Thos Ashley Jr. & Charles Ashley

In the arrangement for the dissolution of partnership, carried on between you & us at Alton, the circumstance of your names being joined with ours in a bond for $700 payable to Chas Hy Bayle dated Sept 18th 1822 & also in a bond for $500 payable to Wm Worthington dated Sept 26. 1822 & also in a promissory note for $2000 payable to Graham dated June 5th 1821 - was omitted to be mentioned and as the whole aforesaid sums is due from us, it is necessary you should have some understanding as to when your liability should cease - we do therefore hereby agree to pay off the bonds for $700 & $500 - within three months from this date & the note for $2000 on or before Oct 31. 1827 - or to make such other arrangements respecting the same as shall release you from all claim thereon & enable us to deliver ~~under said~~ said Bonds & note to you ~~can-~~ -called - within the time herein specified, & we also further engage at any time hereafter when called upon by you to execute a general release to you from all claims in any way relating to said partnership - Alm Crowley - by Crowley - W. Crowley.
